This PANeNEWS is the first issue to go out in more than a year. My apologies to you, kind subscribers. You may rest assured knowing that PAN will not clog your email with relentless spam.

It seems that I, as publisher/editor of the PANeNEWS, have been putting quite a bit of time into developing my Ben Franklin re-enacting role along with all my other PAN duties thus the newsletter hiatus.

There is a strange irony in Ben Franklin not writing and publishing, so I have decided to correct this anomaly and make an effort to get back into my newsletter role in 2022. My hope is that you will follow along for the numismatic ride.
